As the Name suggests, we are growing in capacity and expertise to advise and complement security services in the intelligence collection and best investigation skills in Terrorism related cases. In the Greater Eastern African Region and eventually the African continent. To say the least we are a specialist security and risk management boutique firm.

OUR COMPANY is built on the assumption that the Security enterprise landscape in the great lakes Eastern Africa Region is forever changing and this presents challenges of ensuring that regional Security, Governance, Risk and Compliance as is well entrenched within business processes, systems, products and infrastructure of governments, authorities, homes and individual clients.

We believe that Security and Technology are best planned with the best personnel with the vast experiences and tools.

With the varied interests in the region and the ever hanging security threats against entities and individuals posed by the world interest in the region, we strive to acquire an in-depth understanding of our clients' business objectives, goals and vision in order to ensure that our solutions do not only support critical business initiatives, but are also an enabler to our clients' business objectives.

We therefore provide customized on-site security consulting services and assistance in the assessment of business risks, key business requirements for security and the development of security policies and processes. Our on-site security consulting services include comprehensive security architecture assessments and design (including technology, business risks, technical risks and procedures).

WHAT WE EXACTLY DO

Security Risk Audit and Assessment is the core service upon which Benchwatch Africa, and remains a major component of our service offering. SECURITY RECRUITMENT SERVICES AND TALENT SOURCING

NSA can, through our specialized recruitment company, can identify, recruit and deploy high-calibre security professionals on behalf of organisations and corporations that require these specialized skills.

Our experience and understanding of the security industry, combined with our extensive network of contacts allows our dedicated consultants to identify highly skilled candidates for select clients in a range of countries. Detailed reference checks also help organisations gain an additional level of information on their applicant, beyond what is listed on their resume, providing greater insight to a person's work ethic, abilities and integrity.

IT GOVERNANCE, RISK AND COMPLIANCE (ITGRC) is often cited as one of the top 5 issues companies have to address. Due the complex nature of the industry and statutory regulations and the constantly changing threat landscape, most companies struggle to keep abreast with the regulatory landscape as well as dealing with the complexity of ITGRC.

This is further exacerbated by the shortage or lack of human resources particularly those with exposure to security concerns who are professional to manage the ITGRC function. With Benchwatch Africa services, it is possible for clients to achieve their business objectives with a sustainable security concern without sacrificing on their personal or asset security and compliance requirements in the region which is as a matter of fact very volatile.

The success of Benchwatch Africa so far has been built on the passion, experience and expertise of our exceptional management staff. Selecting high calibre employees from across the world creating a synergy of expertise and professional surge to security concerns and interests, investing in their professional development and then empowering them to perform at an optimal level remains the key differentiator to our business success.

We have an exceptional team who work as a cohesive unit to support each other and our clients.

WHO WE EXACTLY ARE

We take great pride in the experience and professionalism of our staff particularly Director AIGP John Ndungutse, Esq who has over 40 years in Security enforcement and advisory to governments in the eastern Africa region and also in Mozambique leading and head starting anti-terrorism units and in deploying the best possible resources for every project that we undertake. We recognize that to be successful, our men and women must be of the highest calibre reflecting the diversity of the communities and cultures in which we operate.

With integrity and honesty at the heart of our business, we are dedicated to complying fully with the letter and spirit of the laws, rules and ethical principles that govern us and therefore expect our people to maintain the same ethical standards.

Benchwatch Africa has gained an impressive reputation for providing effective solutions in developing countries within the great interlacatrine region and challenging markets, specifically in East Africa under the East African Community and in Mozambique. In addition, we have an impressive global network of security assets, coupled with extensive high-level access and intelligence capabilities that provide our clients with comprehensive global safety and security solutions.

By leveraging this global network of comprehensive knowledge and resources, Benchwatch Africa has its eyes on the greater eastern Africa from the Atlantic Ocean from the Congo to the Indian Ocean of Kenya and Mozambique and has over the time colonized vital assets and can access vast amounts of detailed intelligence, enabling us to provide our clients with information that is more accurate and the ability to react to events that occur nearly anywhere around the region.

Through a single point of contact with us, you will have instant access to our exclusive global network of resources as well.
